

Tricoloured Blockchain seven companies collect eight million

19 February 2018

MONACO GROWTH FORUMS SETS ITS SIGHTS ON MILAN FOR THE FIRST TIME PARTICULARLY AFTER CASTA DIVA ACQUIRES 51 PER CENT OF THE COMPANY Milan Eight million euro is the funding that a hundred institutional investors, from 15 countries, have brought to the table to encourage the rebirth of 7 innovative companies operating in the articulated world of the blockchain. It is the result of the 13th edition of Monaco Growth Forums (Mgf), the two-day international event dedicated to electronic currencies (BitCoin and similar), which takes the name of the company which organises it. It is the first time that Mgf has decided to set its sights on Milan, but it was not a random choice: the decision comes after the acquisition of the majority (51%) of the company, founded and led by Andrea Porcelli, by Casta Diva Group, an Italian multinational company operating in the communication sector for the production of branded contents, viral videos, digital contents, films and live music entertainment over 4 continents with offices in 14 cities. Casta Diva, of which Andrea de Micheli is CEO and Luca Oddo chairman, is one of the companies which has received a part of the investments. The other companies are: Swarm Fund, the blockchain for private equity which is laying the foundation for future investment economy using an artificial neural network. HydroMiner, a company that uses hydropower to extract crypto

currencies efficiently and with high profits. Osa Hybrid Platform which offers new ways to ensure optimal shelf supplies for retailers. By using artificial intelligence-based technology, Osa is able to track inventory movement.

The last two companies are: Divi Project, which offers a solution to accelerate the use of blockchain technology. And CoinBoost, which offers a token (portable electronic device) that will offer investors a budget and a quality control of the relationships with investors and marketing services selected by their 2 ICO companies.
